Re: Castillo et al., vs E L G etc., et al.,
 Civil Action No. 21-02550(AT)(KHP)
 Case Management Conference Scheduling Conflict

Dear Judge Parker,

I am writing concerning the parties case management conference scheduled for November 3, 2022. Defense counsel has a conflict, requiring counsel to appear in Bronx Civil Court and Supreme Court concerning an eviction, at 9:30 a.m. Therefore, it is unlikely that counsel would be make it the 10 a.m. case management conference in the above-referenced matter. As such, defense counsel respectfully requests an adjournment of the case management conference scheduled for November 3rd, at 10 A.M., adjournment such to November 10th or 14th, at which time the parties would appear for a case management conference. Plaintiffs' counsel has been consulted and has agreed to this adjournment request.

Additionally, defense counsel has proposed holding the instant case management conference in abeyance, given the rather unique circumstances of this case, which were discussed at the mediation session conducted by the Court, wherein the Court suggested that the parties, who are working diligently in trying to resolve this matter, conduct the underlying depositions, and continue to work to a universe that resolves this case, irrespective of the parties' claims and defenses.

Additionally, another reason for the instant adjournment request is that defense counsel must locate the Defendant Alexander. In Mr. Alexander's capacity as a representative of the church, he is often sent on missionary trips by the church, often abroad, such that it is very possible that Mr. Alexander is abroad and would be unable to appear in-person on November 3rd, as we continue our efforts in locating Mr. Alexander.
